72. Indian Territory. SMALL ARCHIVE, containing five (5) pieces of legal correspondence, all handwritten, regarding the Kiamichi County, Choctaw Nation, Probate Court. The Court is authorizing three lawyers (George E. Gatling and I.D. Crouch of San Augustine, TX; and A.R. Durant of Grant, Indian Territory, later Oklahoma) to recover property bequeathed to a minor child, Edd P. Jones.

Original manuscripts. Descriptions of the five manuscripts follow. (1) 1¼ pp, dated November 21, 1899, handwritten on professional letterhead of A.R. Durant, "Practicing Attorney in Federal Courts and Choctaw Courts....Grant, Ind. Ter." Addressed to Messrs. Gatling and Crouch, San Augustine, Texas, with whom Mr. Durant is working on the case. He reports that the minor child's guardian, [Silas L.] Bacon, has filed the bond, and "his appointment [of the legal team] is all right", but that the court order "authorizing Mr. Bacon to employ us" is delayed in being issued since the judge is on his honeymoon. He asks the recipients to send the contract form to him. Signed A. R. Durant. 10 ¾" x 8 ¼". ~ (2) 2 pp, including docketing, on legal paper with red border, embossed seal, dated December 6, 1899. Re the application of the child's guardian, Silas L. Bacon, to employ the three lawyers "to recover property belonging to said ward...as legal heir of Edd P. Jones [Sr]...activated in the state of Mississippi..." The court authorizes Mr. Bacon to hire them, and no fees will be paid if nothing is recovered, but if anything is, the lawyers will receive "one half of the property recovered..." Signed by S.L. Oakes, County and Probate Judge, Ki[a]michi County, Choctaw Nation.

Witnessed Dec. 5, 1899, by J.L. Burney, Probate Clerk of the court above. 14" x 8 ½". ~ (3) 1p, docketed on verso, dated December 6, 1899. As above. Authorizing Silas L. Bacon, as legal guardian, to employ the lawyers "to settle up and collect certain estate belonging to said minor in Mississippi..." and authorizing the lawyers to "investigate and ascertain from all sources practicable" what property may belong to the child as his father's heir, and to institute a suit for the recovery of it. Signed by S.L. Bacon and witnessed December 4, 1899. ~ (4) 1 p, December 25, 1899. From A.R. Durant in Grant to Gatling and Crouch in San Augustine. The lawyer asks his partners whether they have received S.L. Bacon's contract yet and if so, do they deem it satisfactory. He asks what the next step should be and requests that they keep him posted. A postscript asks "what Rail Road your town is on..." 10" x 8". ~ (5) 2 pp, April 28, 1900. From Durant to Gatling and Crouch. Durant says he's "done everything a man can to get the judge to issue the orders..." but he has been put off until the fifth Monday in May. Durant apologizes for the delay and adds that he's so "fretted" that he "could almost tell the judge what I think of him as a man." But he won't. Signed A.R. Durant. 8 ¾" x 5 ½" Very Good. 121. Montana Territory. 1868 TERRITORY OF MONTANA BOND AND COUPONS, SIGNED BY JAMES TUFTS, GOVERNOR OF MONTANA TERRITORY, AND BY OTHER TERRITORIAL OFFICIALS. [Virginia City, M.T.]: Montana Democrat Print, 1868. Original document. Decorative certificate, printed in blue and black, accomplished by hand, with two engraved vignettes. In part: "It is hereby certified that the Territory of Montana is indebted to Ira H. Ming in the sum of One Hundred Dollars, redeemable at the pleasure of the Territory after the 1st day of June, 1870, and payable on the 1st day of June, 1873, with interest...." Dated June 1, 1868. Signed by: James Tufts, Secretary of the Territory; W.H. Rodgers, Auditor; and W.G. Barkley, Treasurer. The embossed seal of Montana Territory is at the lower left of the bond. Attached to the bond are three coupons, printed in blue, each for the sum of $7.50 and each signed by Ming, Rodgers, and Barkley, Fine.

Judge James Tufts (1829-1884) was born in Charlestown, New Hampshire, was graduated from Middlebury College in 1855, and was admitted to the bar in 1857. He moved west to Niobrara, Nebraska Territory, in 1859, where he became a probate judge. Tufts moved on to Dakota Territory in 1861, and served as secretary for the legislative council there. In 1862, he was appointed US Commissioner to adjust military claims. Tufts moved to Idaho Territory in 1862, served in the Idaho Territorial Legislature, and was first speaker of their House of Representatives. In 1867, he was appointed Secretary for Montana Territory, and served as Montana's acting governor in 1868-1869. He ran to be Montana's delegate to the US House of Representatives, lost the election, and moved back to Nebraska to farm and practice law.

123. Montana Territory. COMMITMENT DOCUMENT, SENTENCING A CHINESE IMMIGRANT TO SIX MONTHS IN THE TERRITORIAL PRISON ON CHARGES OF LARCENY, 27 February 1886. Miles City, M.T., 1886. Original document. 2pp, folio, printed form, accomplished by hand, with seal of the US First Judicial District Court. Briefly, one Ah Kee was arrested in Miles City, Montana Territory, for the crime of stealing $25 at knifepoint from a man named Monsen. At his trial by jury, Ah Kee denied the charges and claimed that he had no knife. Ah Kee had been found with $18 on his person when arrested, and he claimed that Monsen had loaned him $10 which he parlayed into $18 by gambling. A dagger was submitted as evidence of the crime, although no one would claim ownership of it. As shown in this document, the jury found Ah Kee guilty, and US District Court Judge Charles R. Pollard sentenced him to a $5 fine and six months in the Montana Territorial Prison. He was further made to return the $18 to Monsen and to pay $21.35 in Court costs along with the $5 fine. Signed and sealed by Judge Pollard. Very Good.

Many Chinese migrated to Montana Territory in the 1870s and 1880s, seeking gold and fortune. The miners and settlers in the Territory did not welcome them. Incidents of severe discrimination against the Asians became commonplace. The arrest and six-month sentencing of Ah Kee seems an extreme judgement against the accused perpetrator who must have been hard put to defend himself in an English-speaking court. [This document is accompanied by a photo-copied article on the trial from the Daily Yellowstone Journal, February 2, 1886.] (#038299) $250.00
